Chairman's introduction

As demonstrated in this report, local content levels are increasing and local programming is becoming available on more and more channels - and screens. In a fragmenting market local content provides an important 'point of difference' for broadcasters, so it could be seen that - to a certain degree - the changing broadcasting landscape assures the future of local content.

The challenge for NZ On Air is to ensure that the promotion of New Zealand culture and identity, through broadcasting, is not compromised by this shifting environment, and that a diverse range of local programming remains accessible to the New Zealand viewing public - wherever they are watching. We will continue to champion the importance of local content on our screens - with a particular emphasis on public interest broadcasting.

The mechanisms for achieving this continue to increase with TVNZ operating under its Charter and Maori Television (MTS) now well established. Additionally, in November 2006 the Government allocated funding to TVNZ's new digital channels to "strengthen its public broadcast offering as it makes the transition to free-to-air digital". The first of these channels is due to launch in the last quarter of 2007. This should have a positive impact on local content levels going forward.

NZ On Air has conducted an annual survey of the local content appearing on our television screens since 1990. Over the years this report has grown and changed, but its primary focus remains the same: a quantification of how much local programming screens on the main free-to-air television channels. As noted, the number of channels has increased since the first report and will continue to do so. Prime TV was included for the first time last year, and Maori Television (MTS) and C4 are included in the main body of the report in 2006.

What is apparent this year is that local content is spreading across a wider range of channels - meaning increased hours - but that levels on the established free to air channels remain relatively static. Nevertheless local content hours are more than double those screened a decade ago. First-run hours directly reflect the amount of new investment in local programmes so it is a pleasing result that, even without taking into account the hours of MTS and C4, first-run programming increased by 152 hours. And, without taking those channels into account, prime time hours remained consistent, having shown an increase last year.

The Television Local Content Group has agreed that NZ On Air's Local Content Report will be the central document to provide a tool for setting local content targets and measuring results. The Group was set up in 2003 to establish and monitor appropriate voluntary targets. The Group comprises TVNZ, TV3, Prime Television and representatives of SPADA and NZ On Air. MTS joined the group in 2005.

For 2006, the Television Local Content Group committed to the following local content targets for transmission between the hours of 6am and midnight.

	Target	Actual
TV One	54.2%	53.2%
TV2	18%	19.8%
TV3	20.6%	19.3%
Prime TV	3.9%	13.1%
Maori Television	89%	74.7%
C4	26%	22.5%

Prime TV exceeded its target - by a significant 9.2% - due to the securing of Sports rights as a result of Sky TV purchasing the network, and subsequent to the targets being set.

As occurred last year when Prime TV was included in the report for the first time, the addition of MTS and C4 has seen an overall increase in local content. Local content hours in 2006 reached 10,255 - comprising 30.3% of the 6am to midnight broadcast hours.

Over the years this report has shown that there will always be fluctuations from genre to genre, largely dependant on levels of commissioning, which can be driven by a number of factors, including changed broadcaster strategies and audience appetite. While it does not necessarily follow that the addition of more channels will result in more local content production, we are seeing increasing levels of local content on channels not covered in the main part of this survey - such as those screening on Sky TV. These are summarised at the end of this report. If this trend continues it will contribute to the on-going health of the local production sector

Because it broadcasts a significant amount of local content the addition of MTS in this year's survey has provided more balance across genres. This is reflected in the fact that in 2006 local content levels increased across all genres and the dominance of News and Current Affairs in local content hours was reduced.

Sports programming increased significantly, in part due to MTS, but also due to increased coverage on Prime TV and TV One, which screened the Winter Olympics and the 2006 Melbourne Commonwealth Games.

Entertainment hours were also up significantly due to the inclusion of music channel C4.

As more channels become available the proportion of local content made with NZ On Air funding tends to decline, due to the increased percentage of local content (especially News and Current Affairs) that is produced without a subsidy.

In 2006 NZ On Air contributed funding to 20% of the total local content hours. Increased production costs also have an impact on the percentage of local content funded by our organisation, as does an increased emphasis on quality public interest programming.

NZ On Air's continuing interest is in quality and diversity of local content, readily accessible to all New Zealanders - free-to-air - wherever and however they choose to watch it. As this report is being written NZ On Air is developing a strategy for funding local content in the new digital environment. It presents us with a challenge but is also an exciting next step, aligned with the vision of the Government's 'Programme of Action': New Zealand Broadcasting: a shared space, informing and enriching a changing society."

Special note

As signalled in last year's report, local content figures for Maori Television (MTS) and C4 have been included in this report for the first time. This is in addition to Prime TV's local content hours, added for the first time last year.

Therefore, the main figures for this year cover six free to air channels: TV One, TV2, TV3, Prime, MTS and C4. Where the exclusion of the Prime and/or MTS and C4 hours provides a more meaningful comparison with the previous year, we have made this comparison.

Overview - More channels, more local content

Local content on the main channels has been relatively stable in recent years. As the broadcast market continues to expand, growth in local content is coming from new channels.

Free to air television

- The addition of MTS and C4 to the survey means that total local content measured in 2006 increased by 3229 hours to 10,255 hours, compared with 2005 (7026 hours).
- Excluding MTS and C4, total local content hours were 6924 (7026 in 2005). Local content on TV One, TV2 and TV3 was 6061 hours (6455 in 2005).
- Local content accounted for 30.3% of the 6am to midnight broadcast hours in 2006. Excluding MTS and C4 the percentage is 26% compared with 26.7% in 2005.
- Total first-run local content hours increased by 2201 hours, from 5698 in 2005 to 7899 in 2006. Excluding MTS and C4, the total first-run local content on New Zealand screens totalled 5850 - an increase of 152 hours when compared to 2005.
- Prime time local content increased from 2070 hours in 2005 to 3797 in 2006, explained by the inclusion of MTS and C4. Excluding these channels, prime time local content totalled 2034 hours - a decline of 36 hours when compared to 2005.
- Percentages of total local content hours (6am - midnight) by channel were:

	2006	2005	2004	2003	2002
TVOne	53%	54%	52%	55%	60%
TV2	20%	23%	24%	24%	25%
TV3	19%	21%	22%	20%	22%
Prime TV	13%	9%	Not measured
MTS	75%	Not measured
C4	22%	Not measured

Main variations (2006 vs. 2005)

All genres increased in 2006, with the most notable variances being in Entertainment, attributable to the inclusion of music channel C4, and Sports, due to Prime TV's increased Sports coverage, as well as the Winter Olympics and 2006 Melbourne Commonwealth Games screening on TV One.

- Entertainment programming increased by 981 hours to reach 1721 hours. TV One and TV2 showed significant decreases, while TV3 and Prime TV showed small increases. MTS and C4 contributed an additional 1380 hours to the total.
- Sports local content hours increased from 901 hours in 2005 to 1712 in 2006. TV One hours increased by 278 hours to reach 543, while Sports hours on TV2 and TV3 declined by 33 hours and 138 hours respectively. These decreases were offset by Prime TV hours of 559 (an increase of 337 hours) and the inclusion of MTS and C4 - together totalling 367 hours.
- Documentary hours increased by 108 overall with an increase of 47 hours on TV2. TV One, TV3 and Prime TV all showed decreases. MTS contributed 168 hours of Documentary programming to the total.
- Information programming hours increased by 476 hours, attributable to the inclusion of MTS (535 hours) and C4 (7 hours). TV3 and Prime TV showed small increases, while Information hours on both TV One and TV2 declined.
- Drama and Comedy hours increased by 210 hours, due to the inclusion of MTS (191 hours). Hours also increased on TV One and TV3, while TV2 and Prime TV both showed small decreases.
- News and Current Affairs hours were up by 227 hours to reach 2782 hours - an all time high for this survey. MTS contributed 374 hours with TV One and Prime TV both showing decreased hours. Hours remained consistent across TV2 and TV3
- Children's hours increased by 314 hours, primarily due to the inclusion of MTS (206 hours) as well as an additional 110 hours on TV2.
- Maori programming increased from 346 to 447 hours due to the inclusion of MTS. Maori programming remained consistent across TV One, TV2 and TV3.

First Run Output

Percentages of first run local content hours (6am - midnight) by channel were:

	2006	2005	2004	2003	2002
TVOne	46%	44%	42%	43%	49%
TV2	13%	15%	18%	18%	19%
TV3	18%	20%	19%	17%	19%
Prime TV	12%	8%	Not measured
MTS	34%	Not measured
C4	22%	Not measured

Prime Time Output

Percentages of prime time local content hours (6pm - 10pm) by channel were:

	2006	2005	2004	2003	2002
TVOne	60%	61%	59%	60%	57%
TV2	22%	26%	30%	25%	20%
TV3	42%	46%	39%	41%	41%
Prime TV	15%	9%	Not measured
MTS	62%	Not measured
C4	58%	Not measured

NZ On Air's contribution

- NZ On Air contributed funding to 20% of the total New Zealand hours in 2006.
- A number of factors affect the proportion of NZ On Air's contribution to local content hours, including increased News and Current Affairs hours, which do not receive NZ On Air funding, increased fully-funded local content on TVNZ (under the Charter); as well as increased production costs.

Pay Television

Pay TV data is collated directly by SKY and is set out in Appendix 9. SKY reports a total of 14,132 hours of local content screened in 2006, an increase of 1491 hours from its 2005 total of 12,641 hours. Local content on SKY channels has traditionally comprised mostly Sport and Music but the output is slowly broadening over time.

Changing Local Content Landscape

As each year passes, more and more local content is available to New Zealanders across an increasing number and range of channels - and screens.

Through this Local Content Report, NZ On Air has measured and reported the hours of local content on New Zealand's three nationwide channels (TV One, TV2 and TV3) since 1990. Figures for Prime TV were included for the first time in last year's report (2005) and this year sees local content hours for Maori Television and C4 incorporated into the main body of the report. The inclusion of these channels in this report is evidence of the increasing presence of local content on New Zealand screens.

However, ensuring the report remains valuable in this changing local content landscape is a challenge, as these changes impact on how we survey and report on levels of local content. Therefore, in this report, where the exclusion of the Prime and/or MTS and C4 hours provides a more meaningful comparison with the previous year, we have made this comparison.

NZ On Air's Local Content report has become a core resource for the Local Content Group, a group which was formed in 2003, with the aim of establishing and monitoring appropriate voluntary targets for local content. The Local Content Group is made up of TVNZ, TV3, Prime TV, and representatives of SPADA and NZ On Air. Maori Television joined the Group in 2005.

The report, as well as looking at nine distinct genres which NZ On Air has considered since it established the report, now also reflects the four main genre groupings that are the focus of the Local Content Group - Drama and Comedy (including Children's Drama); Children's; Documentary, Information and Entertainment; and News and Current Affairs and Sport.

Local content is measured in terms of the 18-hour period from 6am - midnight. This is the standard international approach for measuring local content levels, and allows us to make meaningful comparisons with other countries, most notably Australia where all commercial broadcasters are required to meet a local content quota of 55% across the 6am to midnight schedule.

2006 Results - Total Hours

NZ On Air has conducted a survey into local content levels on free-to-air television every year since 1990. Trends over this time are shown in Figure 1 at the end of this section.

In 2006, the inclusion of Maori Television and C4 in the survey means that measured local content totalled 10,255 hours, an increase of 3229 when compared with 2005. Excluding MTS and C4 local content hours were 6924 compared with 7026 in 2005.

Local content on TV One, TV2 and TV3: 2006: 6061 hours

2005: 6455

2004: 6423

Local content accounted for 30.3% of the 6am to midnight broadcast hours in 2006. Excluding MTS and C4 the percentage is 26.3% compared with 26.7% in 2005.

Total local content hours decreased marginally on TV One, with more significant decreases on both TV2 and TV3. Hours increased on Prime TV due to an increase in local sports coverage.

The most notable variances in total hours by genre were in Entertainment, due to the inclusion of music channel C4, and Sport, due to Prime's increased sports coverage as well as the Winter Olympics and 2006 Melbourne Commonwealth Games screening on TV One.

TV One

- Total local content hours decreased by 59 hours to 3492.
- Local content comprised 53.2% of the 6am - midnight schedule (54% in 2005).
- TV One screened more than two and a half times the local content hours of both TV2 and TV3
- Hours remained consistent across most genres with the exception of Documentaries and Entertainment which both declined (by 73 and 129 respectively) and Sport, which increased by 278 due to special event coverage.

TV2

- Total local content hours were 1300, a decrease of 223 hours, mainly due to the cancellation of the Top of the Pops family of shows.
- Local content comprised 19.8% of the 6am - midnight schedule (23.1% in 2005).
- Children's hours increased by 102, with increases also shown in Children's Drama (8), Documentaries (47) and News and Current Affairs (4).
- Greatest decreases in local content hours were in Entertainment (290) and Information (54) with smaller decreases in Drama/Comedy, Maori and Sports programming.

TV3

- Total local content hours were 1270, 111 hours fewer than 2005.
- Local content comprised 19.3% of the 6am - midnight schedule (21% in 2005).
- Hours increased in Children's Drama (7), Drama/Comedy (15), Entertainment (11), Information (7), News and Current Affairs (7) and Maori (2)
- Sports hours again decreased in 2006 (by 138) with decreases also in Documentary (17) and Children's programming (5).

Prime TV

- Total local content hours were 863 compared with 571 in 2005.
- Local content comprised 13.1% of the 6am - midnight schedule (8.7% in 2005)
- News and Current Affairs decreased (49), as did Documentaries (17) and Drama/Comedy (7).
- Sports hours showed the greatest increase (337), with a smaller increase in Entertainment (7).

Maori Television (MTS)

- Total local content hours were 2323.
- Local content comprised 74.7% of the 6am - midnight schedule (with average broadcast hours of 8.5 per day plus extended hours on Anzac Day).
- Highest hours were in Information (535), Entertainment (382), News and Current Affairs (374) and Sports (365).

Note: Foreign programming reversioned in te reo is not captured in these hours due to the difficulty in accurately identifying the titles.

C4

- In calculating local content hours on C4 an allowance of two hours per day is made for local music videos.
- Total local content hours were 1008.
- Local content comprised 22.5% of the 6am - midnight schedule (with broadcast hours Monday to Friday being 2pm to midnight only)

NZ On Air's contribution

- NZ On Air contributed funding to 20% of the total local content hours in 2006.
- When MTS and C4 hours are excluded, NZ On Air contributed funding to 17% of local content programming on TV One, TV2, TV3 and Prime in 2006, a small decline when compared to 2005 (18%).
- A number of factors affect NZ On Air's contribution to local content hours, including increased News and Current Affairs hours, which are not funded by NZ On Air; increased fully-funded local content on TVNZ (under the Charter); as well as increased production costs.

Figure 2 sets out total hours of New Zealand programming by genre from 1997 to 2006 (comprising first-run and repeats across all channels). Comments on specific genre variations between years are made later in the report..

The Local Content Group measures progress against four genre groups. These are:

- Drama/Comedy (including Children's Drama)
- Children's
- Documentary, Information and Entertainment and Maori
- News, Current Affairs and Sports

The graph below (figure 3) shows total hours for 2006 for the hours 6am to midnight by these genre groupings.

Fig 3

Local Content Group Genre Groupings (Total Hours)

First-run hours directly reflect the amount of new investment in local programmes, so their levels are an important local content indicator. First-run hours include both prime time (peak) and off-peak programming.

First-run local content hours increased by 2201 in 2006 to reach 7899. Excluding MTS and C4 first-run hours totalled 5850 compared with 5698 in 2005. TV One and Prime TV both showed increases while first-run hours decreased on TV2 and TV3 - by 137 and 107 respectively.

First-run local content across TV One, TV2 and TV3 in 2006 was 5065, compared with 5198 in 2005 and 5231 in 2004.

Changes to note in 2006 include:

- Drama/Comedy hours increased by 21 hours, attributable to an increase in (first-run) hours in this genre on TV One and the inclusion of MTS, offset by decreases on TV2, TV3 and Prime.
- Children's Drama increased by 9 hours due to increases on TV2 and TV3.
- First-run Children's hours increased by 105 largely attributable to an increase on TV2.
- Documentary hours increased by 61, to reach 374 hours in 2006. First-run hours on TV2 showed an increase (49 hours) - mostly in prime time - and the inclusion of MTS (93 hours) also bolstered this genre. TV One, TV3 and Prime all showed decreases
- Information hours increased by 354 hours, largely attributable to the inclusion of MTS. TV One increased by 47 hours with smaller increases on TV3 (27 hours) and Prime (11 hours). TV2 showed a decrease of 30 hours.
- An increase of 802 hours in Entertainment is due to the inclusion of MTS and C4 in the survey. TV3 showed a small increase (12 hours) as did Prime (4 hours). The most significant decline was 249 hours on TV2 due to the cancellation of Top of the Pops and associated music shows.
- First-run Maori programmes increased by 45 hours, attributable to the inclusion of MTS. Hours remained consistent for Maori programmes on TV One, TV2 and TV3.
- First-run News and Current Affairs coverage increased by 140 hours. The inclusion of MTS hours was offset by small decreases on TV One and Prime TV.
- First-run Sports coverage increased by 664 hours due to the inclusion of MTS hours as well as increased coverage on TV One (283 hours) and Prime (336 hours). First-run Sports hours on TV3 decreased by 139 hours.
- NZ On Air's contribution to first-run hours in 2006 was 20.2% of the total, an increase of 5.1% due to the inclusion of MTS and C4 in the report. Excluding MTS and C4 the figure is 14% compared to 14.9% in 2005.

As a percentage of their 6am-midnight broadcast hours:

- TV One screened 46% first-run local content (44% in 2005)
- TV2 screened 13% first-run local content (15% in 2005)
- TV3 screened 18% first-run local content (20% in 2005)
- Prime TV screened 12% first-run local content (8% in 2005)
- MTS screened 34% first-run local content (with average broadcast hours of 8.5 per day plus extended hours on Anzac Day).
- C4 screened 22% first-run local content (with broadcast hours Monday to Friday being 2pm to midnight only).

Excluding News and Current Affairs:

- TV One screened 24% first-run local content
- TV2 screened 13% first-run local content
- TV3 screened 9% first-run local content
- Prime TV screened 9% first-run local content
- MTS screened 27% first-run local content
- C4 screened 22% first-run local content

Genre first-run hours per channel are set out in Fig 5. below.

Where a significant difference occurs between 18 hour and 24 hour figures, the 24 hour figure is included in parentheses () beside the 18 hour figure.

Details on first-run local content for each channel follows:

TV One

- First-run local content increased by 110 hours to 2997 hours.
- First-run Drama/Comedy hours increased by 10 to 33 hours.
- The most significant increase in first-run hours was in Sports with an increase of 283 hours, primarily due to coverage of the 2006 Melbourne Commonwealth Games and Winter Olympics.
- Information hours increased by 47 due to the addition of new series.
- First-run entertainment hours showed the greatest decline, reducing by 143 hours, attributable mainly to the cancellation of Headliners.
- Other genres to show declines were Documentaries (56), News & Current Affairs (23), Maori (5) and Children's (3).

TV2

- First-run local content continued to decline with an overall decrease of 137 hours to reach 875 hours.
- The biggest decline was in first-run Entertainment which reduced by 249, mostly due to the cancellation of Top of the Pops and associated music shows during the year.
- First-run Children's hours increased by 109 hours due to the addition of new shows and Children's Drama increased by 2 hours.
- Documentary hours increased by 48, predominantly in prime time, while Sports showed a small increase of 3 hours.
- Drama/Comedy hours showed a decline of 17 hours with no new series debuting.
- First-run Information hours declined by 31 hours, mostly in prime time and Maori hours showed a small decrease (2).

TV3

- First-run local content decreased by 107 hours to 1193.
- First-run Sports hours again declined, reducing by 139 hours to reach 156, due to the loss of Rugby to Prime.
- Documentary hours showed a small decline of 15 hours, as did Children's and Drama/Comedy with decreases of 8 hours and 3 hours respectively.
- Information hours increased by 27 due to the inclusion of new series.
- First-run entertainment hours increased by 12 to reach 115 hours.
- Children's drama hours increased by 7 hours due to addition of Maddigan's Quest to the schedule.
- Small increases were shown in Maori programming - up by 4 hours - and News and Current Affairs - up 7.

Prime TV

- First-run local content on Prime TV increased from 500 to 784 hours.
- Sports hours accounted for more than half this with 539 hours, an increase of 336 hours - in the most part due to the addition of Rugby to the Prime TV schedule.
- First-run Entertainment hours increased by 4.
- First-run News and Current Affairs hours were down by 38 to 222 as a result of the changes made to the Holmes programme.
- There was no first-run Drama and Comedy programming in 2006 - a decline of 20 hours.
- Information programming increased by 11 hours and there was no first-run Documentary programming - a decline of 10 hours

MTS

- First-run local content was 1057 hours.
- The most hours were of Information programming with 292 hours.
- First-run News and Current Affairs hours totalled 194.
- First-run Sports hours were 179, predominantly due to Monday Night League.
- First-run Drama and Comedy programming was 50 hours.
- Entertainment first-run hours totalled 194.
- Documentary, Maori and Children's were 93 hours, 48 hours and 7 hours respectively.

C4

- First-run local content was 993 hours on C4 in 2005.
- Being a music channel Entertainment programming accounted for the greatest number of hours with a total of 984.
- The balance of 9 hours was made up of Information programming (7) and Sports (2).

The Local Content Group measures progress against four genre groups. These are:

- Drama/Comedy (including Children's Drama)
- Children's
- Documentary, Information, Entertainment, Maori
- News, Current Affairs and Sports

The graph below (figure 6) shows first run results by these genre groupings, for the hours 6am to midnight.

Prime Time Hours

In last year's report we noted that from 2006 the band for prime time hours in this report would be extended to better reflect international trends and programming realities; thus measurement of prime time would be all programming screened between 5:30pm and 11pm.

We have kept this data separate this year to enable easier comparison with previous years' data and the results are summarised at the end of this section.

Prime time (6pm-10pm) local content hours totalled 3797 in 2006. This represented 43.3% of the prime time schedule. The inclusion of MTS and C4 explains the significant increase in hours.

Excluding MTS and C4, prime time hours totalled 2034, a decline of 36 hours when compared to the 2005 total of 2070. This represented 34.8% of the schedule, compared with 35.4% in 2005.

When comparing prime time local content on TV One, TV2 and TV3 only, total prime time hours were 1818 - as against 1937 hours in 2005 and 1860 hours in 2004.

As prime time attracts the biggest audience, and consequently has the biggest revenue potential, it is logical that the bulk of a network's production budget will be spent on programming in this time band. Therefore prime time local content hours are a useful indicator of the status of production spending by the television networks.

TV One's prime time local content decreased marginally from 895 hours in 2005 to 872 hours in 2006. Information and Sports programming showed increases while all other genres declined.

TV2 again showed a reduction in prime time local content of 46 hours (to 327 hours). The greatest reduction was in Entertainment hours with smaller decreases in Information and Drama/Comedy. These were offset by increases in Documentary and Children's Drama.

In 2006, TV3 screened a total of 619 hours of prime time local content, a decline of 49 hours when compared to 2005's total of 668 hours. This result was primarily attributable to the loss of Sport from the prime time schedule.

Prime TV screened a total of 216 hours of prime time local content, an increase of 83 hours when compared to 2005. Decreases in Documentary, Drama/Comedy and News and Current Affairs were for the most part offset by an increase of 128 hours in Sport.

MTS screened 911 hours of prime time local content in 2006 with C4 screening 853 hours.

NZ On Air's contribution to prime time local content was 23.9%, an increase of 16.1% due to the inclusion of C4 and - to a lesser extent - MTS.

Excluding MTS and C4, NZ On Air's contribution was 7% compared with 7.9% in 2005.

When you compare NZ On Air's contribution to prime time local content on TV One, TV2 and TV3 only, the result is 7% compared with 6.7% in 2005 and 11.8% in 2004.

As a percentage of their prime time schedules (calculated as 1460 hours per channel):

- TV One screened 60% local content (61.3% in 2005)
- TV2 screened 22% local content (25.6% in 2005)
- TV3 screened 42% local content (45.75% in 2005)
- Prime TV screened 15% local content (9.1% in 2005)
- MTS screened 62% local content
- C4 screened 58% local content

When News and Current Affairs are excluded:

- TV One screened 24% local content (19.8% in 2005)
- TV2 screened 22% local content (24.8% in 2005)
- TV3 screened 7% local content (6.4% in 2005)
- Prime TV screened 12% local content (2.6% in 2005)
- MTS screened 49% local content
- C4 screened 58% local content

Detail on each channel follows:

TV One

- TV One screened 872 hours of prime time local content - a decrease of 12 hours when compared to 2005.
- Prime time Information hours increased by 38 hours to total 78 due to the introduction of a number of new series.
- Prime time Sports hours increased by 44 hours due to special event coverage.
- Documentary hours decreased in prime time by 44 hours. A review of its approach to Documentary programming, undertaken by TVNZ in 2005, caused a hiatus in the commissioning of this genre.
- There were decreases across Drama/Comedy (6), Entertainment (18) and News and Current Affairs (36) in prime time.

TV2

- Local content in prime time again decreased in 2006 with a reduction of 46 hours to a total of 327 hours.
- Children's Drama in prime time increased by 5 hours due to the scheduling of Karaoke High
- Documentary programming in prime time increased by 41 hours.
- Prime time Entertainment programming showing the greatest decrease of 62 hours, followed by Information with 25 hours.
- There were minor decreases across Drama/Comedy and News and Current Affairs.

TV3

- Prime time local content totalled 668 hours a decline of 49 hours when compared to 2005.
- There were no Sports prime time hours on TV3 in 2006 - a decrease of 73 hours - due to the loss of Rugby to Prime TV.
- Prime time Documentary programming showed a small decline of 8 hours.
- News and Current Affairs prime time hours showed an increase of 10 hours.
- Children's Drama showed an increase of 7 hours due to the screening of Maddigan's Quest and Drama/Comedy in prime time increased by 3 hours.
- All other genres also showed small increases,

Prime TV

- Prime time local content on Prime TV increased by 83 hours in 2006 to reach 216 hours.
- Sports hours in prime time accounted for the biggest share at 146 hours, an increase of 128 hours.
- Entertainment hours increased by 4 hours while Information increased by 11 hours.
- Documentary, Drama/Comedy and News and Current Affairs all showed decreases, with the latter being the most significant at 33 hours, due to the changes to the Holmes programme.

MTS

- Prime time local content on MTS totalled 911 hours in 2006, more than any other channel.
- Information programming accounted for the biggest share at 242 hours.
- Other genres were: News and Current Affairs (191 hours), Entertainment (169 hours), Sports (126 hours), Documentary (84 hours), Drama/Comedy (50 hours), Maori (48) and Children's (1 hour).

C4

- Prime time local content on C4 totalled 853 hours.
- Entertainment hours accounted for the biggest share at 844 hours.
- The balance was made up of Information (7 hours) and Sport (2 hours).

Prime time hours by channel

The Local Content Group measures progress against four genre groups. These are:

- Drama/Comedy (including Children's Drama)
- Children's
- Documentary, Information, Entertainment, Maori
- News, Current Affairs and Sports.

The graph below (figure 8) shows prime time results for these genre groupings.

Extended Prime Time

When measuring prime time local content screened between the extended hours of 5:30pm and 11pm the following results were recorded:

A total of 4514 hours screened - an increase of 717 hours when compared to the 3797 hours that screened from 6pm to 10pm. News and Current Affairs accounted for 419 - or 58% - of these hours, with the late bulletins on TV One and TV3 and Prime News at 5.30.

TV One

TV One screened an additional 200 hours in the extended period, 120 of which were News and Current Affairs, 42 Sports, 28 Information and 10 Documentary.

TV2

TV2 screened an additional 49 hours: - 14 Information, 13 Sports, 6 Drama/Comedy, 9 Documentary and 7 Children's Drama.

TV3

News and Current Affairs accounted for 122 of the 174 extended prime time hours on TV3. The balance was made up of 15 Information hours and 37 Sports hours.

Prime TV

Prime screened an additional 215 hours in the extended period, of which 175 were News and Current Affairs. The balance was made up of 40 Sports hours.

MTS

MTS screened an additional 56 hours in the extended prime time period: - 36 Information, 11 Sports, 6 Entertainment and 3 hours of News and Current Affairs.

C4

Entertainment programming made up the additional 24 extended prime time hours screened on C4.

Repeat Hours

The requirement for repeat programming is driven in part by the demands of 24-hour transmission (i.e. the need to screen low-cost programming in less commercial slots, such as overnight or very early morning) as well the efficient utilisation of commissioned programmes by the channels (i.e. repeat screenings are generally used at no cost to the network).

Some programmes, such as preschool children's programmes, are designed to be repeated and have a long shelf life so that they may serve different emerging audiences.

Repeated programmes generally don't feature in the prime time schedule (although levels are higher over the summer holidays). In line with the other segments of this report repeat hours are now measured in terms of the 18-hour period from 6am - midnight. This is the most-watched period of the TV schedule.

Repeat screenings in 2006 totalled 2356 hours due to the inclusion of MTS and C4 hours. Repeat hours comprised 23% of total local content hours.

Excluding MTS & C4, repeat screenings decreased from 1328 to 1075 hours a decrease of 253 hours.

Repeat screenings on TV One, TV2 and TV3 only, totalled 997 hours compared to 1257 hours in 2005 and 1192 hours in 2004.

TV One's repeat local content hours reduced by 170 to total 495 hours. Repeated Information and News and Current Affairs programming showed the greatest decreases of 87 hours and 84 hours respectively. Documentary and Sports programming showed smaller decreases. Repeats of Drama/Comedy, Entertainment and Maori programming increased slightly.

Repeat local content on TV2 decreased by 86 hours overall. Drama/Comedy, Children's Drama and News and Current Affairs showed small increases, while all other genres showed decreases.

Repeat hours on TV3 declined only marginally to 77 hours compared with 81 hours in 2005. An increase in repeated Drama/Comedy programming was offset by a decrease in Information programming. Other genres were fairly consistent.

Prime TV screened 78 hours of repeated local content, an increase of 7 hours in comparison to 2005. Again repeated programming was predominantly News and Current Affairs and Sports.

MTS repeated 1266 hours of local content, comprising 36% of their total local content hours. Information programming had the greatest repeat hours with Drama/Comedy, Children's, News and Current Affairs, Entertainment and Sports all being fairly consistent. Fewer repeat hours were screened in the Documentary and Maori genres.

C4 screened 15 hours of repeat local programming.

Fig 9

First run hours vs. Repeat hours

A brief comment on the 2006 trends by individual genre follows. Statistics for each of the nine genres by channel are summarised in Appendix 2.

INFORMATION PROGRAMMING

Locally produced Information programming increased from 1029 hours in 2005 to 1505 hours in 2006 due to the inclusion of MTS (535 hours) and C4 (7 hours).

Excluding MTS and C4, hours declined by 67. TV3 and Prime TV showed small increases while TV One and TV2 both showed similar decreases.

TV One continued to screen the most local Information programming with a total of 746 hours, a decrease of 40 hours when compared to 2005. Information hours remained consistent off-peak with increases in both prime time and repeat hours. A number of new series debuted in this genre on TV One in 2006, including Human Potential, The Book Show, My God, Kiwi Kitchen and NZ House & Garden. Returning were perennial favourites Fair Go and Good Morning, as well as special interest programmes Rural Delivery, Frontseat, Attitude, Tagata Pasifika and Asia Down Under.

Information programming on TV2 decreased by 54 hours in 2006, with off-peak programming remaining reasonably consistent and decreases spread evenly across both prime time and repeat programming. New Information programmes on TV2 included The Fat Chance, Raise My Kids and Nought to Five. Returning Shows included Mitre 10 Dream Home, My House My Castle and Kiwifruit.

Total hours of local Information programming on TV3 increased by 7 to 90 hours. Both off-peak and prime time programming increased, offset by a decline of 20 hours in repeat hours. New series The Perfect Age made its debut on TV3 in 2006. Pacific Beat Street, Gone Fishin', Target and Open Door were among the series that returned.

Prime TV screened Our Place in 2006 making up 5 hours of Information programming. The balance of 15 hours was made up of locally produced segments screening in Getaway.

MTS screened 535 hours of Information programming in 2006, with 50 hours off-peak and the balance of hours spread evenly between prime time and repeat. Programming included Na Ratou, Ma Tatou and Dawn Service, both part of MTS's extremely well received Anzac Day coverage. Other programming included Kai Time on the Road, Ask Your Auntie, Meke My Waka, Mitre 10 Marae DIY, Takataapui and Marae Kai.

C4 screened 7 hours of Information programming including Studentville and C4 at Fashion Week.

NZ On Air provided funding support for some shows in the information category, notably special interest programming such as My God, Rural Delivery, Tagata Pasifika, Attitude, Asia Down Under and Praise Be on TV One, Kiwifruit on TV2, and Pacific Beat Street and Open Door on TV3.

DOCUMENTARIES

Total local Documentary hours increased by 108 in 2006 to reach 644 hours, largely due to the inclusion of MTS hours. TV2 hours increased while TV One, TV3. And Prime TV all showed a reduction in local Documentary programming.

On TV One, local Documentary hours decreased by 73, primarily in prime time. A review of its approach to Documentary programming, undertaken by TVNZ in 2005, caused a hiatus in the commissioning of this genre. Fewer new Documentary series debuted in 2006, but those that did included Expose, Search & Rescue, Special Investigators, Borderline, Taonga and Hidden in the Numbers. The Piano Man and Leo's Pride screened as part of NZ Festival. Programmes that made a return included auction house chronicle Going Going Gone, as well as Animal House, Intrepid Journeys and Piha Rescue. Popular series Coastwatch, Border Patrol and Off the Rails all had repeat screenings.

Total Documentary hours on TV2 increased by 47 - with prime time hours up by 41. Off-peak hours also increased slightly and repeat hours remained consistent. A number of new series screened in 2006 including Police College, Trent's Wildcat Adventures, Henderson to Hollywood and The Lion Man - Out of Africa. Returning series included The Zoo, Neighbours at War, Police Ten-7 and Serious Crash Unit.

TV3's local Documentary hours decreased by 17 hours - from 49 to 32 - with prime time hours reducing by 8 hours and off-peak and repeat hours also reducing. The long-running Inside New Zealand returned for a 15th series and included Earthquake, Pecking Order, Still Big?, and Our Dirty Little Secret. House Trap returned for a second series with Money Man and Downsize Me also making a return.

No local Documentary hours screened on Prime TV in 2006 - down from 17 hours in 2005.

Music channel C4 also featured no local Documentary programming.

MTS screened 168 hours of local documentary programming, with 84 hours screening in prime time. Repeats made up 75 hours. Programming included the NZ Doco series, Iwi Toa, New Zealand at War, 28th Maori Battalion, Moteatea, School of Hard Knocks and In the Shadow of Vietnam.

NZ On Air is a substantial supporter of the documentary genre and provided $11.81 million in the 2005-2006 year, contributing to 126 1/2 hours of documentary programming.

MAORI PROGRAMMING

The total hours of Maori programming in 2006 increased from 346 hours to 447 hours. Maori programming across TV One, TV2 and TV3 remained consistent and the increase in hours is due to the inclusion of MTS in this report for the first time. Much of the programming screened on Maori Television is classified by its genre (Drama, Entertainment, etc) rather than as Maori programming. This is consistent with other areas of this report. For example, in addition to programmes included in this category, some documentaries with significant Maori content screen within TV3's Inside New Zealand and TV One's Documentary strands. These are captured within the Documentary genre.

IN 2006, TV One screened 257 hours of Maori programming - a decrease of only one hour. Returning series included Waka Huia, Marae and Te Karere. A summer season of Marae also screened.

Total hours of Maori programming on TV2 were 21, a decrease of 2 hours when compared to 2005. These hours are attributable to the long-running series Mai Time.

TV3's total hours for Maori programming increased by 2 hours - from 65 to 67 hours. First-run hours increased by 4, offset by a decrease of 2 repeat hours. Tu Te Puehu continued to screen on TV3, as did Pukana.

All of the Maori programming on TV One, TV2 and TV3 screened off-peak.

No Maori programmes screened on Prime TV or C4.

MTS screened 102 hours of Maori programming - 48 of them in prime time. Programming included Korero Mai, Ma Te Ture, Whatu Kura and Ko Waiapu Te Awa. Also screening, having first screened on other networks, were Waka Huia, and Pukana.

Maori broadcasting funding agency Te Mangai Paho still funds the majority of Maori programming however, increasingly, NZ On Air is contributing more funding to Maori programmes considered to be of interest to a mainstream audience (including Maori). NZ On Air also allocated funding to provide sub-titles for Pukana and Te Karere.

Fig

Total Maori programmes by channel

Where a significant difference occurs between 18 hour and 24 hour figures, the 24 hour figure is included in parentheses () beside the 18 hour figure.

CHILDREN'S PROGRAMMES (including Children's Drama)

Total hours of Children's (and Children's Drama) programmes increased by 314 hours to reach 814 hours in 2006.

The increase is attributable to the addition of 110 hours on TV2, as well as the inclusion of MTS hours. Children's hours on TV3 remained consistent.

No Children's programming screened on TV One in 2006 - a decline of 3 hours.

TV2 was again the main provider of locally-made children's programmes with a total of 484 hours, an increase of 110 hours when compared to 2005. TV2's first-run hours increased by 111 hours, with 5 hours in prime time, due to Karaoke High replacing Shortland Street over the Christmas period. Children's repeats remained consistent at 110 hours. A number of new programmes contributed to TV2's increase including the very popular Let's Get Inventin', Jandals Away and Kids Own Awards. Children's Drama was well represented with the aforementioned Karaoke High, The Killian Curse and The Lost Children. Pre-school series The Go Show returned, as did Studio 2, Puzzle Inc, What Now? Saturday Disney and Squirt.

Local children's programming on TV3 increased very marginally from 123 hours in 2005 to 124 hours in 2006. First-run Children's hours increased by 2 with a decrease of 8 off-peak hours being offset by the screening of Maddigan's Quest in prime time. Bryan and Bobby and The Underwater Melon Man also debuted on TV3 in 2006 and favourite Sticky TV returned. Secret Agent Men and The Dress Up Box had repeat screenings.

No children's programming screened on Prime TV or C4 in 2006.

MTS screened 206 hours of Children's programming in 2006, predominantly repeat hours attributable to repeat screenings of Maori language series Manu Rere. Koi also screened in 2006.

Because Children's programming screens in off-peak (non-commercial) timeslots - and can be expensive to produce - broadcasters do not usually commission this genre without substantial financial assistance. Some of TVNZ's Charter funding has been directed towards Children's programming however, NZ On Air remains the main funding contributor to this genre.

NZ On Air implemented a revised Children's strategy in the 2003-2004 year which resulted in the funding of more stand-alone (but lower volume) Children's shows. Increasing production costs also continue to have an impact on the hours produced and therefore screened.

Fig

Total NZ children's hours by channel

ENTERTAINMENT

Locally-made Entertainment hours again increased significantly in 2006 - up from 740 hours in 2005 to reach 1721 hours. This increase is due to the inclusion of both C4 and MTS in the survey. Entertainment hours on TV One and TV2 decreased considerably while TV3 and Prime TV showed small increases.

Entertainment programming on TV One declined by 129 hours in 2006 to reach 81 hours. First-run programming reduced by 143 hours due to the cancellation of daily Entertainment show Headliners. Repeat programming increased by 14 hours. The Great New Zealand Special Bee and About Now made their first appearances in 2006 and Dancing with the Stars was as popular as ever in its second outing. Game of 2 Halves, World of Wearable Art Awards and Mucking In all returned. John Rowles In Concert, Goldenhorse with the NZSO and Dave Dobbyn: One Night in Matata were among the repeated Entertainment specials on TV One.

The cancellation of Top of the Pops and associated music shows caused a significant decline in Entertainment hours on TV2 in 2006. Hours dropped by 290 to a total of 129. Repeat hours increased while both prime time and off-peak hours reduced - by 62 hours and 188 hours respectively. Fewer Entertainment programmes made their debut on TV2 in 2006 but NZ's Brainest Kid, No Opportunity Wasted and Top of the Class were among those that did. Programmes making a return included NZ Idol, Matthew and Marc's Rocky Road series, Stage Challenge and So You Wanna Be A Popstar?, with a Christmas special.

TV3's Entertainment hours remained consistent in 2006 with an increase of 11 hours - from 110 hours in 2005 to 121 hours in 2006. This increase was in first-run Entertainment programming. Viewers saw So You Think You Can Dance? for the first time and Live At Yours also debuted. The Qantas Television Awards screened on TV3 in 2006 as broadcast of this event rotates amongst the networks. The Official NZ Top 40, Fight for Life, and Pop Goes the Weasel returned to TV3's schedule in 2006 and Dare to Believe had a repeat screening.

Local Entertainment programming increased by 7 hours on Prime TV - 4 in prime time and 3 repeat. These hours are attributable to the screening of Out of the Question and The Tem Show.

The bulk of C4's local content hours consist of Entertainment programming so it is not surprising that the inclusion of C4's hours in this survey has dramatically increased the total hours for this genre. C4 screened a total of 998 hours of local Entertainment programming in 2006 - 99% of its local content hours. An allowance of 2 hours per day is made for local music videos screened on C4. In addition to this C4 screened The Official NZ Top 40, Live At Yours, Pop Goes the Weasel, Homegrown, Smokefree Rockquest and a range of NZ Music Awards programming.

MTS also made a significant contribution to local Entertainment hours in 2006 with a total of 382 hours. Of these, 169 hours were in prime time, 25 hours off-peak and 188 hours repeat programming. A diverse range of programmes screened, including Te Wero, Iwi All Stars, Maorioko, Radio Wha Waho, Te Mika Show, Opera in the Pa, Coast, LIPS, Toru and coverage of Matariki.

NZ On Air does not generally fund programmes in the entertainment genre, as they tend to be lower cost and / or sufficiently commercial for broadcasters to fund them independently. However, NZ On Air provides significant funding support for local music videos.

NB: The 2002 numbers shown in this graph are higher due to a categorisation error in the 2002 survey.

Where a significant difference occurs between 18 hour and 24 hour figures, the 24 hour figure is included in parentheses () beside the 18 hour figure.

NEWS AND CURRENT AFFAIRS

Local News and Current Affairs programming increased by 227 hours in 2006 to reach a total of 2782 hours - once again an all-time high. MTS accounted for 374 of the total hours. TV One's hours decreased - as did Prime TV's - and hours remained consistent on TV2 and TV3.

TV One screened a total of 1505 hours of News and Current Affairs programming in 2006, a decrease of 108 hours when compared to 2005. Prime time programming showed a decrease of 36 hours largely due to the cancellation of Face to Face and Foreign Correspondent. Repeat programming decreased by 85 hours and off-peak programming increased by 13 hours. News programming remained fairly consistent on TV One with the stable of One News shows being the cornerstone of the schedule. ASB Business and Breakfast continued to be repackaged for weekend transmission. Close Up, Sunday, Agenda and Eye To Eye all returned in 2006.

TV2's total News and Current Affairs hours increased by 4 to 16 hours in 2006, attributable to the screening of Current Affairs show 20/20.

Local News and Current Affairs hours on TV3 remained consistent with a small increase (all in prime time) from 625 hours in 2005 to 632 hours in 2006. Campbell Live returned to TV3's weeknight line-up, as did 3 News, Nightline and 60 Minutes.

Prime TV screened a total of 255 hours of local News and Current Affairs programming in 2006, a decline of 50 hours - primarily in prime time - due to changes made to the Holmes programme. Prime News remained the mainstay of Prime's local News and Current Affairs line-up.

No local News and Current Affairs programming screened on C4.

MTS screened 374 hours of local News and Current Affairs programming, 191 hours in prime time, 2 hours off-peak and 181 repeat hours. Te Kaea anchored the News and Current Affairs schedule on MTS. Other programming included Te Heteri, Pakihī Toa, Matapūhi, Te Arikīnui and Kaupapa Rangitahi.

NZ On Air does not generally contribute funding to News and Current Affairs programmes.

Note: As previously highlighted, NZ On Air no longer includes newsbreaks in this report. They make up a very small percentage of the total hours and arguably are neither first-run nor repeat programming.

SPORTS

Major international events such as the Olympic Games (1992, 1996, 2000 and 2004), Commonwealth Games (1990, 1994, 1998 and 2002, 2006) or the America's Cup (1995, 1999 and 2003) can cause total sports coverage to fluctuate dramatically from year to year. This was again the case in 2006 as coverage of the 2006 Melbourne Commonwealth Games and Winter Olympics created a significant increase in TV One's Sports hours. This plus the inclusion of 365 Sports hours screened on MTS resulted in total Sports hours increasing from 901 in 2005 to 1712 in 2006 - a huge increase of 811 hours and an unprecedented high for this genre. Prime TV's hours also increased, primarily due to the acquisition of Rugby which had previously screened on TV3. As a result TV3's Sports hours declined, as did TV2's.

TV One's Sports hours increased by 278 hours in 2006 to reach a total of 543 hours. This is the highest total since 2002 when coverage of three major sporting events caused a significant spike in hours. This increase, as mentioned above, is due to the screening of the 2006 Melbourne Commonwealth Games and Winter Olympics. Other Sports to feature as part of TV One's sports line-up in 2006 included Netball, Tennis, Rugby Sevens, Athletics, Hockey, Soccer, Badminton, Rowing, Bowls, Swimming and Motor Sport. The Wheelchair Rugby World Champs also featured with funding assistance from NZ On Air.

Sports coverage on TV2 declined by 33 hours in 2006 to 86 hours, all of which were first-run, off-peak programming. Basketball was the foundation of TV2's sports programming with Beach Volleyball, Touch Rugby, Kickboxing, Ironman, Triathlon and Surf Lifesaving also making an appearance. XSTV also screened.

Total sports hours on TV3 decreased by 138 hours, to 157 hours, mostly as a result of Prime TV securing Rugby coverage. No Sports programming screened in prime time in 2006 on TV3 and off-peak programming declined by 66 hours. Under 19 and Under 21 Rugby screened as did the Churchill Cup. The Women's Rugby World Cup also screened. Golf, Horse Racing, Trotting, Mountainbiking, and Snowboarding all featured as part of TV3's Sports line-up in 2006. SportsTonight also returned to the TV3 schedule.

Prime TV screened 559 hours of local Sports programming in 2006, an increase of 337 hours due to the addition of Rugby to the schedule, as well as new local show The Crowd Goes Wild. Prime time hours increased by 128 while off-peak hours increased by 208. Repeat hours remained consistent at 20. Cricket, the NRL, Super 14 and the Air NZ cup formed the basis of Prime TV's Sports schedule.

C4 screened 2 hours of Vodafone X Air.

MTS screened 365 hours of local Sports programming, 126 hours in prime time, 53 hours off-peak and 186 hours of repeats. Monday Night League was a significant part of MTS's Sports offering. Rodeo Kaupoai, Ngati NRL, Waka Sprint Nationals, Tri-Nations League and CODE also featured,

DRAMA/COMEDY HOURS

Total hours in this genre increased from 420 hours in 2005 to 631 hours in 2006. Excluding MTS and C4 hours totalled 440, a small increase when compared to 2005. Hours increased on TV One and TV3 while TV2 and Prime TV both showed small decreases. MTS hours accounted for 191 of the total.

TV One's total hours of local Drama and Comedy programming were up by 16 to reach a total of 79. Prime time hours decreased while off-peak and repeat screenings increased. A new series, Orange Roughies, began screening on TV One in 2006 but was subsequently pulled from the schedule. Local feature Whale Rider had a repeat screening as did the mini-series Fallout. Repeats of Mercy Peak also continued to screen. A second series of scripted comedy Seven Periods with Mr Gormsby screened in 2006 and the first series was also repeated.

Total Drama and Comedy hours on TV2 declined by 5 to 300 hours - with a decrease of 17 hours in first-run programming being off-set by an increase of 13 repeat hours. Shortland Street continues to be the mainstay of TV2's drama schedule and while no new local dramas screened on TV2 in 2006 a number were repeated, including; The Market, Street Legal, City Life and Jackson's Wharf. Satirical comedy Eating Media Lunch returned to TV2 in 2006, as did Moon TV and the Comedy Gala. The critically acclaimed Wayne Anderson Singer of Songs made its late night debut and The Unauthorised History of New Zealand and Pulp Comedy had repeat screenings.

Drama and Comedy hours on TV3 were up by 15 to total 48 hours in 2006. Prime time hours increased by 2 and repeat hours by 18. Off-peak hours declined by 5. Outrageous Fortune remained a key part of TV3's Drama line-up culminating in a feature-length Christmas special. Doves of War also debuted on TV3 during the year and animated comedy 'broTown returned for a third series.

Prime TV screened 13 hours of local drama and comedy programming in 2006, made up of repeat screenings of police drama Interrogation.

MTS screened 191 hours of local Drama and Comedy, 50 of which were in prime time. Many of these hours can be attributed to the Maori language soap Korero Mai. The Maori Merchant of Venice had a repeat screening as did The Silent One. Comedy included Pio Revisited, B & B, and Te Tutu

No local Drama or Comedy screened on C4.

NB: 2002 hours for TV One and TV2 are lower than those shown in the 2002 survey due to a categorisation error.

Data in the main body of this report is independently collated by NZ On Air. Data in the following section is supplied by the respective broadcasters and is unchecked. It provides a brief summary of the local content screened on Pay TV and by regional broadcasters.

SKY TELEVISION

Figures for local content screened on Sky were collated by Sky and provided to NZ On Air for use in this Local Content Report.

According to Sky's analysis, in 2006 Sky screened a total of 14,132 hours of local content across all its channels. This is an increase of 1491 hours when compared to the reported total for 2005 of 12,641 hours. Of the 2006 total, 9449 hours were locally produced sports programmes; 3120 hours were attributed to local programming on Juice and J2; the balance was spread across a number of channels, including local features and short films on the Rialto channel.

A full breakdown of Sky's local content figures is included as Appendix 9.

REGIONAL CHANNELS

A number of smaller regional and community channels operate in New Zealand, with the aim of meeting the viewing demands of a part of the population whose viewing requirements cannot be met on a national basis. NZ On Air has been able to support some regional television initiatives since 2005 when a Government funding allocation was made specifically for regional television. The New Zealand Regional Television Broadcasting Group (RTB) represents the common interests of these stations (which may operate under commercial or non-commercial licences) and has provided local programming figures for inclusion in this report.

The Group states that in 2006 its members screened 24,971 hours of 'locally provided' programmes and 'locally produced' programmes, some of which are New Zealand made programmes funded by NZ On Air. (Note: a "locally provided" programme is one that is purchased from overseas by a local community group, which then purchases broadcast time from the local channel).

Of the 24,971 hours, 4926 hours of the total were first-run and 20,044 hours were repeats. Of the 4926 first-run hours reported by the RTB, 2536 were locally produced and 2123 were locally provided. NZ On Air programmes made up 267 hours of regional first-run programming.

Note:

Filler programmes such as New Zealand music videos are not included, just as filler programmes are not included for the national channels.

Notes On Methodology

1. For the main free-to-air channels, data from the Listener programme billings is recorded onto an Access database. Scheduling changes by the television networks after Listener publication are generally not included; nor are unlisted programmes such as short filler programmes included.
2. Programmes have, in most cases, been counted according to the amount of New Zealand content within the programme. For example, series such as 20/20 which averages two overseas stories and one New Zealand-produced story per episode, have been recorded as containing one-third of an hour of New Zealand content (two thirds in the case of 60 Minutes). There is a degree of arbitrariness to such allocations, but the emphasis is on consistency so trends can be observed.
3. Sports programmes are the chief example of programmes which fluctuate significantly, and the New Zealand content is not always published in detail in advance. The only accurate way of measuring New Zealand content is by timing each week's programmes as they go to air, which is not a practicable exercise for NZ On Air. Therefore, all sports content included within New Zealand-produced branded programmes has been counted as a New Zealand programme. For sports matches not featuring a New Zealand team, but which include a New Zealand commentator "topping and tailing" the broadcast, an allowance is made for the presenter links only.
4. If a programme straddles prime time and off-peak, it is counted as prime time if the majority of the programme screens in prime time. For example, if a programme begins screening at 9.15pm and concludes at 10.15pm, it is counted as one hour of prime time.
5. In general, programmes are counted as whole hours or half hours irrespective of the differing durations often encountered. For example, a programme may actually have a duration of 22 minutes or 24 minutes or 29 minutes, depending on advertising and promotion break durations, but is counted as a full half-hour for simplicity.
6. "First-run" programmes mean programmes which are appearing on a free-to-air national network for the first time. If a programme screened on C4 first, and was then repeated on TV3, the latter screenings are counted as a repeat. Previous screenings on pay television are not counted.
7. New Zealand content is classified as material which is both predominantly made in New Zealand and which reflects New Zealand identity and culture. Thus programmes which are made in New Zealand but which have no New Zealand flavour are not counted. Neither are programmes about New Zealand but made for foreign television channels.
8. Programme hours are divided into nine genre categories. The categories are:

Drama/Comedy

This category contains all New Zealand-made Drama and Comedy, other than Drama made for children. Comedy is classified as Drama, not Entertainment when it is scripted and acted in accordance with usual Drama production techniques (examples include Outrageous Fortune and Seven Periods With Mr Gormsby).

Sports

This category includes all programmes packaged and produced in New Zealand. This is the only category which can contain a high level of overseas content and still be classified as a New Zealand programme. See paragraph 3 above.

News and Current Affairs

This comprises all New Zealand-produced News and Current Affairs programmes. One-off advertised events are included, but special bulletins which have not been advertised are excluded. For programmes which are a mixture of New Zealand and overseas material, such as 20/20, only the New Zealand portion is counted.

Entertainment

This category includes game shows, music programmes (from classical to rock), quizzes and competitions such as NZ Idol and Dancing with the Stars, broad competitive formats such as Mitre 10 Dream Home, and Top of the Class plus light entertainment shows.

Children's

Programmes which use New Zealand presenters to provide links between cartoons and other overseas material, or which have a minority of New Zealand content such as Squirt, are classified by the amount of New Zealand content only. Programmes which contain some overseas content but have a majority of New Zealand content, such as What Now?, are fully classified as New Zealand programmes.

Children's Drama

When this survey commenced, a larger amount of Children's Drama was being produced. This situation fluctuates so the category has been retained for consistency.

Maori Programmes

This category comprises programming made specifically for a Maori audience, such as Marae, Waka Huia and Te Karere.

Documentaries

This category generally comprises one-off documentaries or series in a non-magazine format.

Information

This category comprises a wide range of programme types, generally with a magazine format and/or an information flavour, as opposed to an entertainment or competitive one. Examples include series such as Frontseat; religious series such as Praise Be; leisure and lifestyle series such as House & Garden; and special interest series such as Attitude.

9. Within each category, and by channel, programmes can be further analysed, depending on whether they are:
 - prime time (first-run programming screening between 6pm - 10pm)
 - offpeak (first-run programming screening any time outside prime time)
 - repeat (repeated programming screening both in prime time and offpeak).
10. This report also provides information on local content totals under the four main genre groupings that are the focus of the Television Local Content Group, which are:
 - a. Drama / Comedy (including Children's Drama)
 - b. Children's
 - c. Documentary, Information, Entertainment, Maori
 - d. News, Current Affairs and Sports
11. Hours are measured and reported on an 18-hour clock (as introduced in the 2003 report).
12. Total broadcast hours in this survey were 6570 (18 hours per day). Broadcast hours from MTS and C4 were 3111 hours and 4472 hours respectively.
